Message from Fr. Michal . . .

The season of Easter is the most important of all liturgical times, which Catholics celebrate as the Lord's resurrection from the dead, culminating in His Ascension to the Father and sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. There are 50 days of Easter from the first Sunday to Pentecost. It is characterized, above all, by the joy of glorified life and the victory over death expressed most fully in the great resounding cry: Alleluia! All faith flows from faith in the resurrection.

This is the year of St. Joseph, and with the success of the first study group, interest has sparked to offer another session. If you are interested in being a part of this group, books are available and we can arrange for the meetings. Please contact Darlene at the parish office at 217.347.7177 or email d.koester@sheff.org to sign up.

As we move forward with the reopening of the church, ministries are vital to Mass. We value and appreciate the time and talent you share with the parish. If you would like to join a ministry but were unable to attend the meetings, please contact the parish office at 217.347.7177. Our liturgical ministry leaders will assist you in the various Mass ministries.

International Exhibition MIRACLES OF THE EUCHARIST

Please take time to view the International Exhibition "Miracles of the Eucharist" that is displayed in the Narthex. The display expands the length of the Narthex and we will highlight various portions of it in the bulletin, on Facebook, and by Constant Contact. It is fascinating to see the different panels and read about all the miracles that have happened. This is a wonderful display, so please stop by the Church Narthex and check it out in person.

Welcome to Sacred Heart - we're glad that you're here!

Sacred Heart Parish

Sacred Heart Church welcomes you back to Mass

Bishop Thomas John Paprocki announced that, effective April 11, the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days will be modified to be limited to the following groups:

- ◆ Those 65 years of age or older;
- ◆ Those at risk for severe illness due to underlying medical conditions as described by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention;
- ◆ Those who care for the sick, homebound, or infirmed;
- ◆ Those women who are pregnant;
- ◆ Those who cannot be accommodated at Mass because the church was at safe-distancing capacity
- ◆ Those who are sick or who came in contact with someone with COVID-19/flu are obligated to stay home and are therefore excused.

All other Catholics not in those categories in the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois are obligated to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation, effective April 11. Answers to questions can be found at dio.org/backtomass.

We will no longer require you to sign up for Mass. Sections F & G are roped off to allow strict social distancing while the other sections will not be roped off. Regardless of which section you prefer, the pews will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Masks are highly encouraged, but not required.

International Exhibition “Miracle of the Eucharist”

The Twelve Promises Linked to the Devotion to THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

FRANCE, 17TH CENTURY

The message received by the nun, Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque of Paray-le-Monial, contains the “Twelve Promises of the Sacred Heart,” in which Jesus reveals the graces linked to this devotion. Love for the Sacred Heart of Jesus is directly tied to that of love for the Eucharist. As the great apostle of this devotion, the Jesuit priest Henri Ramiere wrote, “It is in the Eucharist that we truly find the Heart of Jesus nearest to us; it is in the Eucharist that He unites himself in a most intimate way to us, and we to Him.”

“The Church, true minister of the Blood of Redemption, was born from the pierced Heart of the Redeemer, and from that same Heart comes also the grace of the Sacraments in gushing overabundance, which instills eternal life in the children of the Church.” Pope Pius XII

Saint Claude of Colombiere

A design executed by Saint Margaret

The Child Jesus is pictured in an iconograph in the style of the Spanish Counter Reformation, atop a globe of the earth studded with stars of gold. The Child holds His Heart in His hand. From the collection of the Hieron Museum in Paray-le-Monial

“We desire that all of the people who struggle actively to establish the Kingdom of Jesus in the world, take the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as their banner. [...] Ardently wishing to offer a secure barrier against the impious plottings of the enemies of God and of the Church, and to have families and nations return to the love of God, we do not hesitate to propose devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as the most efficacious school of divine charity, on which charity it is necessary to construct the Kingdom of God in the souls of individuals, in the domestic society and in nations.” (Pope Pius XII, Haurietis aquas, 82-83)

“Jesus is found in the Sacrament of the Eucharist, in which love keeps Him tied like a victim, always ready to be sacrificed for the glory of His Father, and for our salvation. His life is totally hidden from the eyes of the world, which succeed in seeing only the poor and humble appearances of bread and wine. [...] Jesus is always alone in the Blessed Sacrament. Try to never miss any Communion, lest we give great joy to our enemy the devil!” ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE

“The Church wishes to incite the faithful even more to draw near with confidence to this Holy Mystery and to consume ever more hearts in the flames of that divine love with which the Sacred Heart burned when, in His infinite love, he instituted the Most Holy Eucharist.” POPE BENEDICT XV

Saint Margaret received many mystical gifts and some revelations from Jesus. We list here below the “Twelve Promises of the Sacred Heart” which the Lord revealed to the saint:

1. To those devoted to My Sacred Heart, I will give all the graces and helps necessary to their state of life (Letter #141).
2. I will establish and safeguard peace in their families (Letter #35).
3. I will console them in all their afflictions (Letter #141).
4. I will be their sure refuge in life, and above all, at the hour of death (Letter #141).
5. I will pour abundant blessings on all of their labors and undertakings (Letter #141).
6. Sinners will find in My Heart an inexhaustible source of mercy (Letter #132).

7. Lukewarm souls will become fervent with the practice of this devotion (Letter #132).

8. Fervent souls will ascend rapidly to a higher perfection (Letter #132).

9. My blessing will remain in those places in which the image of the Sacred Heart will be displayed and venerated (Letter #35).

10. To all those who labor for the salvation of souls, I will give the grace to be able to convert the hardest hearts (Letter #141).

11. Persons who spread this devotion will have their names written forever in My Heart (Letter #141).

12. To all people who receive Communion on the first Fridays of nine consecutive months, I will give the grace of endless perseverance and of eternal salvation (Letter #86).

We have partnered with the Unit 40 Educational Foundation to offer a $500 scholarship to an EHS graduate. It is our intent that we will be able to provide this scholarship annually to a SHS alumni who stays active in the church into their high school years. Because it is provided via the Unit 40 Educational Foundation, the recipient does need to be a graduate of EHS.

You can view the scholarship listed on the link below.

It is titled "Sacred Heart School Scholarship".
