Message from Fr. Michal . . .

This Sunday, we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent and mark the final week of prayer and penance as we wait for the birth of our Savior.

This final purple candle symbolizes peace. It reminds us of the message of the angels: "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

Please join me for our last 6:00am Monday morning Rorate

Mass on Dec. 20. This Mass will start in darkness and only lights of the candles will guide the way so feel free to bring a lantern with you to Mass. Monday morning Masses will resume at 8:30am on Monday, Dec. 27.

Adoration & Reconciliation on Monday, Dec. 20, at 7:00pm, with an additional priest available for Reconciliation. I am also available for Reconciliation 30 minutes prior to weekday Masses, or by appointment.

I look forward to celebrating our Christmas Masses with you next weekend. A special thank you to all our volunteers who are assisting with ministries, decorating, and all the preparation for Christmas.

"Kolęda" - It is the Catholic tradition of pastoral visits to parishioners' homes, taking place after Christmas. During a visit, a priest prays with the family, blesses the house, and talks to the family.

Code of Canon Law is saying:

Can. 529 §1. In order to fulfill his office diligently, a pastor is to strive to know the faithful entrusted to his care. Therefore, he is to visit families, sharing especially in the cares, anxieties, and griefs of the faithful, strengthening them in the Lord, and prudently correcting them if they are failing in certain areas. With generous love he is to help the sick, particularly those close to death, by refreshing them solicitously with the sacraments and commending their souls to God; with particular diligence he is to seek out the poor, the afflicted, the lonely, those exiled from their country, and similarly those weighed down by special difficulties. He is to work so that spouses and parents are supported in fulfilling their proper duties and is to foster growth of Christian life in the family.

I want to visit all of you every year, if you allow me. So, please call our parish office or talk to me after Mass and schedule a date for a "Kolęda".

God bless
Fr. Michal

Welcome to Sacred Heart - we're glad that you're here!

GIFTS OF CASH

The most popular way to make a gift is with cash or a check. To take a deduction for the gift on your 2021 tax return, your gift must be dropped off at the parish office by Thursday, December 30, 2021, or postmarked on or before December 31, 2021.
