The Diocesan Campaign for Justice and Hope (DCJH) is an effort led by the Diocese of Springfield to promote justice and hope for the poor. DCJH puts into practice Catholic teaching on life and dignity of every human person. DCJH addresses issues related to poverty and assists with protecting life at all stages. Over the past year, the DCJH has awarded grants to 28 organizations within our diocese to help the needy. It is important to note that 4 of these grants were awarded within Effingham! Recipients include: Family Camp (via Sacred Heart Parish), Crisis Nursery, El Shaddai Homes, and the Family Life Center of Effingham. You can read more details about how the grant money was used by these organizations in the November 10th issue of Catholic Times. If you have questions about DCJH, contact our parishioner, Tom Purcell, at 217-821-7077.

Next weekend, please consider sharing your generous heart with the Campaign for Justice and Hope. You can place your contribution in the collection at Mass or send it directly to: DCJH, 1615 West Washington Street, Springfield, IL 62702.

FISH will offer a FREE Thanksgiving meal to all of Effingham County and their families on Thursday, November 28. A congregate meal will be held at 12:30pm at Cornerstone Christian Church (3600 N.
