We are excited to begin the season of Advent this Sunday! Advent is a beautiful time of year... a time of hope, anticipation, and joy as we await and prepare for the birth of our Savior! The word "Advent" is derived from the Latin word meaning "coming". It is during these four weeks of Advent that we prepare our hearts for the coming of Jesus. The Advent season reminds us about the importance of Christ in our lives, prepares us to celebrate Christ's birth at Christmas, and refers to His second coming at a future time.

Heavenly Father, during this season of Advent, we pray for focus and peace. There are so many distractions this time of year, many of them well-meaning. But, nothing gives our hearts rest like resting in You. We seek to keep You as the focus of each day, so we can know the peace that only You offer. Your son, Jesus, is Your greatest gift to us, a great sign of Your love. Guide us as we strive to walk in that love together as a family this Advent. As we prepare our hearts for Christmas, bring us closer to each other and to Your son. Amen.

Our Advent wreath is beautifully displayed in front of the altar. The wreath and candles help us visualize the progression of this special season. The wreath itself, which is made of various evergreens, signifies continuous life. The circle of the wreath, which has no beginning or end, symbolizes the eternity of God, the immortality of the soul, and the everlasting life we find in Christ. The four candles represent the four Sundays of Advent, symbolizing hope, peace, joy, and love.

We invite you to join us as we prepare for Jesus' birth during this very special and holy time of year. Please check pages 4-5 of this weekend's bulletin for a list of events and spiritual growth opportunities for Advent and Christmas. Let us remember the reason for the season and keep Jesus at the forefront of our minds and activities.

You're Invited! Ladies of the parish: you are invited to our CCW Christmas party this Tuesday evening! Check page 5 of this bulletin for complete details. We hope to see you there!

Important Time Change: The time for our Monday Healing Rosary will change during Advent! It will continue to be prayed on Monday mornings, however, it will be prayed at 7:00am instead of 9:00am. (It will be prayed following the 6:30am Rorate Mass).

Our December altar server meeting will be Wednesday, December 3, at 5:34pm in the church. We ask for all servers to attend.

This weekend we advance to the next liturgical year—which is Year 'A' in the Saint Augustine Hymnals. As always, you can look at the song board to find the page for that day's Mass. The letter (A, B, or C) denotes which liturgical year we are in. The following number denotes the page number for the readings for that day's Mass. (In the example shown here, the liturgical year is 'A' and the readings can be found on page 808.) The remaining rows of numbers denote song numbers.

A Note from our Principal, Mrs. Habing:
Happy Thanksgiving! I want to take a moment to thank you for trusting your children to our Sacred Heart Shamrock family. We are so grateful for their smiles, their laughter, and the joy they bring to each day. They keep every day interesting and keep us on our toes!

It has taken me a long time to realize that good does not come without bad. Would we truly recognize the really great things in our lives without having experienced low and challenging moments? I believe that challenges are placed in our path because, for a reason only God can understand, there are lessons we need to learn. Maybe it is because we will need valuable information to help ourselves or another person someday. Maybe we need to learn a lesson in empathy, grace, or forgiveness for ourselves or others. Maybe God is sending us signs that the path we are going down is leading us toward poor choices and even worse consequences, and is trying to divert us onto the path that He has paved for us. Maybe it is a combination of reasons... Who truly knows but God? What I do know without a doubt is that God does not make mistakes. We are exactly where we should be, exactly where we NEED to be at every moment in time, whether they are fulfilling or challenging. It is difficult at times to give up control of our lives and events in our lives. However, in my experience, it has been worth it Every. Single. Time. I'd like to share a simple prayer that has helped me through many trials: Jesus, help me know what you want me to do. I hope it can help you too!

I pray that this Advent season brings you peace, mercy, clarity, and, with the help of God, all the grace that only He can bestow. Have a wonderful and blessed Christmas and New Year.

~ Charlotte Habing, Principal, Sacred Heart School

Thank you to everyone who contributed to our Food Drive! Members of our Student Council helped deliver the items to Catholic Charities. While there, they were given a tour of the food bank and heard about why the food program is so important in our local community.

"Advent is a journey towards Bethlehem. May we let ourselves be drawn by the light of God made man."
-Pope Francis

Join us on Mondays during Advent!

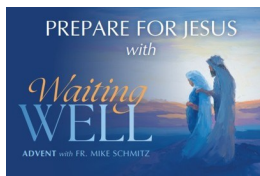

On December 1, 15, and 22, we will be hosting the following in church:

- ⇒ Rorate (candlelight) Mass at 6:30am
(no 8:30am Mass these days)
- ⇒ Pray the Healing Rosary in church at 7:00am
- ⇒ Eucharistic Adoration from 7:00am - 8:00pm
- ⇒ Confession from 7:00pm - 8:00pm
(December 22 will be a special Night of Confession with 4 priests available.)

Please note: Any time you pray at Eucharistic Adoration, you can receive a partial indulgence. A plenary indulgence is granted when you visit the most Blessed Sacrament during Adoration for at least 30 minutes. (All other qualifications for plenary indulgence still apply: go to Confession, receive Communion the same day, say prayers, and be free of venial sin. If you are interested in more information, please talk to Fr. Michal or contact the parish office.)

Due to it being the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, Monday, December 8, has a different schedule than the other Mondays in Advent.

This is the holy day of obligation celebrating that the Virgin Mary was free of original sin from the moment of her conception. Masses will be held on Monday, December 8 at 8:30am, 12:10pm, and 6:30pm. Please join us!
*The 8:30am Mass will be incense-free.

During Advent, our men's group will be studying the book Waiting Well by Fr. Mike Schmitz. All men are invited!

They meet on Thursdays at 7:00pm in the church narthex. Any questions, contact Tom Purcell at 217-821-7077.

We need just a little bit more help! We are in need of the following items. If you are able to donate, please drop these items off to our church narthex this weekend. Thank you!

- ♦ Fleece Lap Throws
- ♦ Men's Socks
- ♦ Women's Socks
- ♦ Tissues
- ♦ Bar Soaps

If you prefer to make a cash donation, place it in the collection basket and designate it for "Advent Angels". Thank you! The items will be delivered on Saturday, December 6, the Memorial of St. Nicholas.

The Advent edition of The Word Among Us is now available in the narthex. It includes inspirational daily meditations and readings. We invite you to take a copy as you prepare for the birth of Jesus during this Advent season.

Christmas

For a child is born to us, a son is given to us; upon his shoulder dominion rests. They name him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace.
- Isaiah 9:5

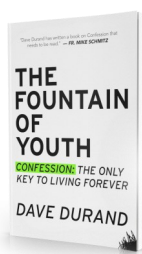

Christmas Caroling

Our Sacred Heart youth will be Christmas caroling on Wednesday, December 17, to some of our parishioners in local nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and homebound. This is always a special tradition and fun way to spread Christmas cheer.

Christmas Programs

Sacred Heart School invites you to "Christmas in Bethlehem Gulch," our K-8 Christmas Program and Band Concert! Saddle up for a country Christmas in Bethlehem Gulch starring our very own eight-grade students on Wednesday, December 17, starting at 6:15pm in the school gym. It is sure to be a darn tootin' good time! Dress rehearsal is Tuesday, December 16, at 1:00pm. Parents, grandparents, and friends are welcome at both performances!

The Sacred Heart School 4-year-old Preschool Christmas Program will be held on Friday, December 19, at 10:30am in the school gym. Parents and grandparents are welcome!

A Gift for You—When you come for Mass, make sure to grab a copy of The Fountain of Youth in the narthex. This book offers a refreshing perspective on the sacrament that is most often overlooked (and even avoided): Confession. Author Dave Durand will help you break through what's holding you back and lead you to the freedom that Christ came to win for us. With clean souls, we will be able to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist with a joyful heart and share in His victory over sin and death.

Pro-Life Update: As we look back on the 40 days of the Prayer Campaign for Life (Sept. 24 – Nov. 7), we reflect on our many blessings: 44 churches and organizations in our region participated to fill the days with pro-life prayer...generous volunteers provided 110 hours of service at the Silk Purse Thrift Store, which supports the Family Life Center. Hundreds of people in our community prayed to protect all human life from conception to natural death. THANK YOU!!

Our local effort was conducted in solidarity with the international “40 Days for Life” campaign. They have documented 25,795 babies saved from abortion (that they know of) since campaigns started in 2007! Be inspired by the true stories of abortion-minded women that had a change of heart. Go to www.40daysforlife.com to read their blog posts (click on MEDIA at the top). Please keep the protection of all human life in your prayers.
